

Minutes of the COMUS Club AGM

Held on Friday the 11th January 2002 in the MDH, Imperial College

The meeting was opened at 19:25, with Mr Darren Holmes in the chair.

Minutes of the 2001 AGM

The minutes of the 2001 AGM were read by Nick Marley, Helen being on holiday in New Zealand. There were no amendments to the minutes although it was noted that the meeting still considers Animal more mature than Kieran Hassett.

Treasurer's report

Adam Mahomed reported that the society had sufficient funds to subsidise the dinner this year and that he recommends that members join the Fifty Club.

Pinner's report

The pinner is in Florida, so no report was forthcoming.

Comic editor's report

This year, Comic has expanded and now includes photographs. Free cameras have been left on the dinner tables to enable members to take embarrassing photographs of each other as the evening wears on. These may be used in future editions of Comic, or placed on the Comus Web site.

The Comus web pages have been extensively re-designed and the meeting approved the creation of a new post of "Web Editor".

Elections

Pinner	Tom Dane was re-elected so that he could actually do the job this year.
Badger	Kat Fishwick has had to step down. Erica Strauss will take over.

Matters arising

It was felt that invitations to the dinner should be sent out earlier and that e-mail should be used where possible. If this is to be practical, members should inform the web editor of any changes to their contact details.

The web page has a list of members with whom the committee has lost contact. Members were encouraged to look at the list and to pass on the details of anyone they know to the web editor.

It was noted that attendance on First Tuesdays is dropping. Members were encouraged to turn up to bar evenings.

Erica apologised for the “dodgy sign”.

There being no further business, the meeting was closed at 19:40.
