

Minutes of the COMUS Club AGM

Held on Friday the 14th January 2005 in the SCR, Imperial College

The meeting was opened at 18:50, with Mr. Brian Tucker in the chair.

Minutes of the 2004 AGM

Roland Trice read the minutes of the 2004 AGM. There were no corrections; no matters arising and the minutes were approved by the meeting, nem con.

Treasurer's report

The accounts were distributed at the meeting. Laurie Tweedale reported that the society still has sufficient funds, having made money on last years' dinner. £80 in unclaimed 50-club prize money has been returned to the main account. In keeping with the usual practice, anyone wishing to know details of the accounts; could see her in the bar after the meeting. Laurie also recommended that members join the Fifty Club.

Pinner's report

Ant Brown reported that three pins signed last year were located in the storeroom where he left them, until just prior to the meeting. They appear to have been removed by person or persons unknown.

There have been no candidates for pins since the last AGM.

Badger's report

Erica Strauss was unable to attend the dinner due a family bereavement. Brian Tucker reported on her behalf that six badges remain in stock.

Comic editor's report

Gary Ewer reported that "It's over there, it's still too big to fit in your pocket and it's not in colour".

Chair's report

In a uncanny duplication of his 2004 speech, Brian Tucker reported that "We are here, we have a dinner".

Notice of Motion concerning Constitutional Amendments

The committee has drafted a new constitution, designed to clearly state all the rules needed to run the society and it's affairs. The original constitution will be appended to form an historical record of the club's ability to draft in blank verse.

The amendments will be posted to the Comus web site and paper copies can be sent to members who ask the Hon Sec.

Notice of motion is given that a vote will be held during the 2006 AGM on a proposal to adopt the new constitution.

Matters arising
